

"Be beacons of love and light to others"

Messages of Love and Mercy

Volume 2

PREFACE

While on a pilgrimage to St. Rita of Cascia in Pennsylvania on June 12, 2001, Mary S. Reilly, a wife and mother, who is also an artist and shopkeeper, was blessed with a vision, which she believed to be of Mary, the Mother of God.

On Sunday, July 1, 2001, Mary had a strong desire to visit Our Lady's Shrine behind St. Mary's of the Lake Church, in Skaneateles, New York, to pray the rosary. Mary went there to pray and heard Our Lady speak to her interiorly and request that she come to the Shrine the next evening and bring two friends. On that Sunday of July 1, 2001, Mary's life would change in a way she was to have never believed! She was given the first of what would be many visions at this beautiful but humble grotto. The grotto was the first of three built in Upstate New York by Father Marianus Nowakowski, in thanksgiving and tribute to Our Blessed Mother after she appeared to him three times while imprisoned in a Nazi concentration camp in Poland during World War II; promising that his life would be spared and the camp would be liberated.

Mary has also had apparitions of Saint Francis of Assisi, Saint Anthony of Padua, Saint Therese of the Child Jesus, Saint Padre Pio and Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

Our Blessed Mother began giving public messages to Mary for all of Her children who gathered to pray the rosary at the shrine at Saint Mary's of the Lake Church. Fundamentally, Our Lady is asking, as always, that we pray and fast, go to Mass frequently, receive the sacraments, attend confession regularly, and be kind and charitable to others. As simple as her demands are, few are responding to them.

In addition, during all of this time, Our Lord was dictating messages to Mary at her home, usually late in the evening. Our Lord asked that His messages be made known and has promised special graces to all those who read His words of love and mercy. In response to Our Lord's request this second volume of messages from Our Lord and Our Lady of the Finger Lakes is being published covering the period from November 2002 until Easter 2004. This is done with humility and love.

Our Lord's Messages

Highlighting particular aspects of these messages could be considered folly as it is unlikely that anyone is capable of placing the correct emphasis on so much important information. Nevertheless, the serious nature of the messages demands that some comment be made at this time. This brief review is given for guidance but it must be stressed that there is no substitute for reading the messages and taking time to meditate on each of them.

Our Lord has recently warned us, “Now the time of My justice will prevail. A time of tribulation and chastisement will come over the world.” (03/19/04) For the first time Our Lord has referred to Himself by His Messianic title ‘The Son of Man’. He is the gate of heaven, appointed as judge by the Father. No-one comes to the Father except through the Son (Jn 14:6). Will we be ready to go through the gate to the Father? Our Lord says, “Wake up, I say, wake up.” The ten virgins were woken from their sleep as the bridegroom approached (Mt 25:6); now the Son of Man is fast approaching for the Marriage of the Lamb. (Rev 19:6) Will we be like the wise or the foolish virgins? Our Lord says, “Pray and fast, give up your wicked ways, walk in the truth for the Son of Man beckons out to His people.”

The message is still one of conversion. The chastisement is the Father's last attempt to bring about conversion. In the same way that a good child does not need to be scolded, those who convert now, before the chastisement begins, will not suffer it. Our Lord has made this clear: “Never has the world known what awaits them. For My faithful it will be joyful splendor, but for so many they will cry and wail and grind their teeth for they did not take the time to know Me. They made money, power, and false securities their priority, pray for them.” (12/18/02)

Since the time of the apostles attempts to predict the Second Coming have been unsuccessful, and successive failures have left most people skeptical as to it ever occurring. However it is only in the 20th century that apparitions of Our Lady and Our Lord have provided the source of something more than mere speculation by man. Many of these apparitions are approved by the Church. While we may choose to ignore approved private revelation since the whole of Revelation is public and complete, it is clear that private revelation directs us to examine that part of public Revelation which God considers important for a particular time.

This grace should not be dismissed because our time may well be no more quite soon. Our Lord has addressed this very point: “I know all of this sometimes seems very far off in the future for My time is not your time and My ways are not your ways. Nevertheless, I tell you My precious pearl, soon, in your time, all of this will come into fruition.” (06/20/03)

With a limited period of time until the chastisement, Our Lord wishes each of us to become “beacons of light and love”, (01/23/03) and “ambassadors of love and peace”. (07/30/03) As a beacon illuminates the darkness and acts as a guide, so we too must be a light to those who have not taken the time to know Jesus.

Our Lord is calling us to follow the path of holiness. Repeatedly He asks us to keep His commandments, attend confession and receive Him worthily in the Holy Eucharist. He desires that we renew ourselves daily by taking time out to be still and taking time to be quiet, uniting ourselves to Him in prayer. (10/29/03) We are not to pay attention to the distractions of this world, but instead are to pray for the gift of detachment. (01/21/03) Our Lord asks us to pray from our hearts - simple prayers from the heart please Him most. (06/20/03) We are to stay close to His holy and immaculate Mother and make praying the rosary a daily practice in our homes, for the rosary is one of our greatest weapons against our adversary. (08/19/03) We are also to recite His Chaplet of Divine Mercy. (06/20/03) All this calls for endurance - we are to place all our trust in Jesus; we are to resist the direction of the prevailing winds and to move against the tide. (07/30/03)

Endurance will be rewarded. After the Tribulation, Our Lord's peace will reign. His new Kingdom will be established as we witness the triumph of Our Lady's immaculate heart. A new day will dawn on a new earth, a land where milk and honey will flow. We will know the glory of Our Lord's' new era. What a miraculous day it will be. There will be no more poverty, hunger, or sickness, only beauty, order, and love as the sun rises and sets on a glorious new earth. (03/19/04)

This is a crucial time in history. (10/21/03) It is to be marked by a great miracle. The day of enlightenment is fast approaching – every one will be enlightened. Each will receive the grace to see the state of their souls as the Father sees them. For most, they will recognize this grace and will flock to Our Lord's Church, for they will seek to be reconciled to Our Lord. And for those with a sincere heart, Jesus' mercy will be theirs. For others, they will run the other way, for their hearts have hardened. (07/08/03) We must prepare our hearts, seeking only to do God's will. Our Lord is telling us all this so that we will be prepared. (03/19/04) Our Lord tells us not to hesitate to ask Him for all that we need through the intercession of His Mother, for nothing will be denied us if it is in accordance to His Holy Will. (07/16/03)

Our Lady of the Finger Lakes Apostolate

November 8, 2002
Friday, 12:01 - 12:19 am

“My precious Mary, I am Jesus, your Lord and Savior. My Lamb, I am the light of the world. I have created all things in My image and likeness. My child, rejoice for the reign of God is at hand. The day will soon dawn when the triumph of My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart will be fulfilled. All of the hierarchy of Heaven - the angels and saints, stand ready to sound the trumpets as My Spirit is heralded upon the earth. It will be a new paradise.

“My majestic splendor will reign over the entire universe that I have created. Let your love and prayers take flight My little one, as I continue to call you out upon your mission. My child, My Father is pleased with your work. Through My divine grace, you will continue to draw and gather My flock as My Mother calls all of her children back to Me. So it has been written My dove, you will assist My Mother in this great mission. Mary, My precious child, I have given you My beloved and devoted priest, Father Shamon. He is your confessor appointed by Me to guide you on the road to holiness. My beloved Father Shamon will always stand at your side as My new era of holiness and peace will be brought into fruition.

“You have been given many and specific graces by Me, some you realize, many are kept hidden from you. I have appointed My beloved Therese to assist you. She is My “little one” and through her faith, devotion, and the complete offering and abandoning of herself to Me, she has attained great glory. For it is My Therese’s desire to continue to gather all of My children to My most Sacred Heart. She will assist you on your journey, little one. My great saints are especially active right now at this important time in history. Be brave My dove, be courageous and steadfast in faith; for great is your mission and I am with you always. You have nothing to fear, as I will always illuminate your path with My divine rays of love and mercy. Your special protector, My beloved Raphael, is always with you.

“Little one, I tell you all of this to fortify you. Most of all, you are under the mantle of My Mother’s protection. I am pleased with the small groups where you and My faithful are gathered in love and prayer. All of you are special in My eyes and I hold all of you close to My most Sacred Heart. I have given each of you to the other in friendship and love. Foster this in one another as I strengthen all of you. Be steadfast, My doves, in your love for Me. Be a good example to others by showing acts of charity, patience, kindness and most of all, love. Love one another as I have loved you. Great will be the day when you will all partake in My heavenly banquet. Abandon yourselves to Me in all things and only seek to do My Father's will. I am blessing all of you with My love and peace. Receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

November 13, 2002

Wednesday, 12:33 - 12:36 am

"My precious daughter, I am the Holy Mother of God. My dear Mary, it is my Jesus' will that my faithful gather at the grotto on the 18th of December.

"I am looking forward to the prayers of my faithful children tomorrow evening. My Jesus will accompany me. Prepare your hearts little ones, for my message. I love you and you are all under the mantle of my protection. Be at peace now, my little one. I love you. Peace, my peace is with you always."

November 20, 2002

Wednesday, 12:36 - 12:50 am

"My child, it is I your Jesus and I desire to dictate this message of love to you and to all of My faithful flock.

"I desire to make each heart of yours, My children, My home. Invite Me into your hearts so that I can fill you with My peace. Make an act of consecration to My Sacred Heart daily. Let Me fill you with My divine Spirit so that you will all be receptive to My grace. Do not burden yourselves with the worry and concern of daily life. I alone can give you solitude and quench the desires that lie in the hearts of My faithful. Abandon yourselves to Me - this takes an act of trust. You must trust Me in all matters; only then will you experience My peace. Have I not asked all of you to seek to do My Father's will at all times?

"Children, I am your Lord and your God, the Alpha and the Omega. I gave My very life so that all of you may be saved. Drink from the font of My mercy. Be kind to one another, I am calling each and every one of you to be My disciples. It is important to imitate My virtues so that when you encounter others, they will see My reflection in all of you. Children, this is important as I call and gather My army. You must all be true to My teachings. This is a time of chaos and unrest. The world that I have created is in a volatile place right now. I need all of you to have a strong faith!

“You are to liken yourselves to birds of the sky. The birds do not seek to know what wind will lift their wings or to which safe tree they will rest. For I take care of even the tiniest of My creatures and so much more do I take care of you. Let the love I have for each one of you take flight. Let your prayers and acts of kindness and charity rise up to Me where I await them with great love and anticipation.

“Children, My dear children, stay true to My word, live My commandments as I call each and every one of you deeper and deeper into My divine love. I am blessing your groups of prayer with special grace and I am rewarding you for your faithfulness. Be at peace now My dear children and receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

The following prayer was dictated to Mary S. Reilly on November 20, 2002 at approximately 12:55 am. Our Lord wants all of us to make this daily act of consecration to His most Sacred Heart.

Morning Consecration to Our Lord's Most Sacred Heart

Dear Sacred Heart of Jesus, today I consecrate myself to your most Sacred Heart. I give myself to you completely. I lift myself up to you completely without reservation. I abandon all of me to you, my dear Jesus. I give you my heart, soul, body and mind. Possess all of me, my Jesus; my faculties and all that I am and can ever be. Cleanse me of all my infirmities. Take away from me anything that displeases you. My sweet Lord and Savior, to you I give all, everything I have and everything I possess for the greater good of my soul and for the salvation of mankind. My sweet Jesus, make my heart your home. Let my heart always be open to your sweet embrace, for I am yours and I belong to you completely. O divine refuge of my heart, look not upon my sins and human frailties but rather only see my love for you dear King of kings, and my desire to serve you in this life and in the next. Amen.

December 10, 2002
Tuesday, 10:25 - 10:38 pm

“Mary, I am your Jesus, the refuge of your heart. Oh My flower, My dove, how your love for Me delights Me and is a soothing balm to My most sacred wounds.

“My dove, My Father is pleased with your work, do not doubt nor worry. I am always with you and I will never leave you, My little one. Be steadfast My dove in your quest for Me. I desire for you to pray the prayer I gave you, the Consecration to My most Sacred Heart, daily. My child, distribute this prayer to your friends. Who ever recites this prayer will be granted special graces and will find favor with Me in all of their necessities. I have given you this prayer with My most ardent love. It is a prayer to be said with faith from the heart.

“Soon, My pearl, I will call you out upon your mission. My devoted and beloved priest, Father Shamon, will always guide you. He is My gift to you, little one. For Father Shamon is My anointed one and I will always speak through him.

“My precious Mary, be patient and kind. Love one another. When I tell you this I speak not only of your neighbor and those you know, but of those you have never met because all of you are My children. Especially nurture the friendships I have blessed you with. You should all help and continue to lean on one another. Foster your friendships as I call all of you into a deeper understanding of My divine love; for I will continue to strengthen all of you in faith and fortitude.

“Spread your wings now My little dove and let your love and prayers take flight, where I will keep you and My faithful safe within the recesses of My most Sacred Heart. I am your refuge. It is My desire that all of you stay open to My call. Be at peace My little ones, as you all continue to step out in faith. My precious Mary, I love you with an everlasting love and I hold you in the palm of My hand. No harm shall ever come to you, My dove. Receive My special love and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

December 18, 2002
Wednesday, 12:07 – 12:26 am

“Mary, it is I, your Jesus and I desire, My dove, to dictate to you this message of love for you and all of My faithful flock.

“Rejoice children for the reign of God is at hand. Be steadfast and joyous in your quest for Me. Suit yourselves in holy armor and prepare yourselves for the reign of My new era. Never has the world known what awaits them. For My faithful it will be joyful splendor, but for so many they will cry and wail and grind their teeth for they did not take the time to know Me. They made money, power, and false securities their priority, pray for them. This has been a time of grace but soon My Father’s justice will prevail. My Father will restore order and justice to the world that He has created - a world of solitude and plenty, a paradise not even known to Adam and Eve before they fell victim to the evil one.

“My children, I have given you many messages and My Father has sent prophets down through the ages to foretell all of this. But foolish men with their pride were arrogant, lost in the ways of this world and refused to listen. My children, I tell you, your love and prayers and sacrifices have been a soothing balm to My most precious wounds and this I will not forget when you stand before Me. Your love for My holy and glorious Mother and Me melts My heart. You will all share in My new paradise.

“Children, do not let this message alarm you, for you have nothing to fear. I have told you that you are all under the mantle of My Mother’s protection. She is your fierce protector and no evil shall rise up against you. Stay true to My teachings, keep My commandments, attend confession regularly and receive Me in the Holy Eucharist; for I am your strength and your refuge. Little ones, continue to step out in faith as I build My army. I have called groups of My little ones around the world; you are My army.

“Pray now for My Church and My priests - the Church is undergoing such necessary change. I will lead My Church out of this dark hour. Listen to My Pope; he is My Vicar on earth. Pope John Paul II will lead the Church to new heights under My direction and under the mantle of My Mother’s protection. The Church is suffering persecution along with My Pope. Pray dear children for Pope John Paul II. He is My anointed Pope.

“Fear nothing as you march on the road to holiness. For I go before you leading you always. I walk along beside you and will always protect you for you are My chosen children and you will all know and experience My vast treasures. For this is predestined by My Father. Seek only to do the will of My Father, dear children, for this is when you will know true peace. Be brave, steadfast, and courageous, My doves, as I continue to lead all of you, for you are My faithful. If only you knew how much I love you. Rejoice and be glad My doves, for I will reward you for your faithfulness.

“Receive My special blessing and anointing, I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

December 25, 2002

Wednesday, 1:15 – 1:30 am

“My dove, My precious Mary, it is I, your Jesus and I desire to dictate this message of love to you and all of My faithful.

“Glory to God in the Highest and Peace to all of My children. Say this My dove in the highest of exultations. I am the Prince of Peace, the Light of the World. On this Christmas morning I am with all of you in a very special way. I came into the world, born incarnate, dispensing My light and piercing the darkness. I came into the world as a child born of My Virgin Mother. My Mother is The Immaculate Conception. My Father willed that I would be born man to live and dwell among you and to experience daily life the way that all of you do. I am the Way and the Truth and the Life. For it was the will of My Father that you would all be given the light of salvation. Come to Me, confide in Me, drink from the font of My mercy for I am mercy and My light of peace and love shines in each one of you. Your love, prayers and sacrifices so please My most Sacred Heart. Oh My dear children, if only you knew how much you are loved by Me – you would run to Me with the faith of a child. I am here leading each one of you on the path of salvation.

“My dear children, give honor and praise to My Father for He so loved the world He sent Me to live among you. Give glory and praise to My Immaculate Mother – she is your Mother. As I told John, behold your Mother, so I tell you. My Mother holds all of you in her maternal heart. She is your refuge and your protection and will never abandon you. She is the Seat of Wisdom, the Queen of Heaven and Earth.

“Dear little ones march on in the light of truth with an unshakable faith. March on to victory; wear your spiritual armor. For you are Mine and I am yours. Remember My faithful flock, I go before you always, have no fear as you tread on the road of holiness. I am blessing all of you unceasingly with My grace in these times. I am My Father’s gift to all of you. Let Me replenish you in the sea of My mercy as I lead you victoriously on the path of holiness. Rejoice and receive My special blessing and anointing on this Christmas day. I bless you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

December 31, 2002

Tuesday, 11:51 pm – 12:01 am

“My child, My dove, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire to dictate a message to you and to all of My children. Be at peace My precious children. I am with you always. You have all been called and chosen by Me, for it has been allowed by My Father. I am calling all of you in a very special way to give witness to your faith as you continue to step out in courage and to follow Me. I am blessing all of you with fortitude, courage and wisdom as I continue to call all of you and lead you on the road to holiness. You will all be a light to others; they will see My reflection and peace in you. Do not seek to understand all of this, you need only to have a heart that desires to be little and holy. You will obtain all of this by My grace.

“The world that I have created is in chaos; it’s very foundation sits on a precipice. I am asking all of you to do acts of charity and kindness and to sacrifice by denying yourselves little things that you like. Take courage – place yourselves in My arms where I hold all of you in the depths of My most Sacred Heart. My Mother is preparing all of you for what lies ahead. Things will unfold and be revealed to you in time. Have no fear for you are all under the mantle of My Mother’s protection. My Mother’s maternal love surrounds all of you dear children.

“I am with you in a very special way during these times. Be brave and be beacons of light to those less fortunate than you – materially and spiritually. For I desire for all of My children to return to Me. Pray especially for those that have turned their backs on Me. Pray for their conversion, I am asking for conversion. My dear children let My love and peace reign in your hearts. For I am with you always leading you on the road of holiness where you will realize My rewards and My Kingdom.

“Be at peace now and receive My special blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

January 21, 2003

Tuesday, 12:09 am

“My child, My precious Mary, I am your Jesus, your Lord and your God. Be at peace, little one, I hold you in the palm of My hand in the deepest part of My most Sacred Heart. You are My gem and My little pearl.

“Oh, little one, great is your mission predestined by My Father to lead

My children out of the darkness into the light. I am blessing you with special grace – be open and receptive to My call. As My Father has sent His prophets before you, now He sends you. Your mission will begin in a new way – a stronger way. My children will respond to My grace for it will be Me they see in you. You will be a reflection of My light. My light of truth will penetrate those I put in your path. I will illuminate their minds and hearts and I will plant and refurbish the seed of faith in each of them as you continue to go forth in My peace and love.

“This is a very important time in history. My children do not realize that the world I have created is on the brink of destruction. My faithful will have nothing to fear as My holy and glorious Mother pleads for all of mankind at the Throne of My Father. My Mother is calling all of you – she holds all of you under the mantle of her special protection. Children, if only you knew how much you are loved. I am asking all of you to step out in faith by keeping My Commandments. Love the Lord your God above all things and love your neighbor as yourself. These are My two greatest Commandments. Think about this; ponder on these simple and fundamental truths. If you live My Commandments you will know peace – you will be beacons of light and truth.

“Run to Me, My precious few. I will shield you from the darts of the evil one. You have nothing to fear as I go before you leading each and every one of you on the road of holiness. Do not pay attention to distractions of this world. Pray for the gift of detachment. Take time out to be quiet, to pray and meditate – listen to Me in the silence of your hearts. Turn away from the noise of the world, it is important to do this. The evil one is distracting My people everywhere, infiltrating things that appear to be good. Take time to pray. I desire for all of you to have a strong faith – with faith, your everyday burdens will become light and you will find yourselves walking in truth. Pray that the just hand of My Father will be swift, and rejoice, I tell you, rejoice, for My Kingdom, My new era is at hand. The triumph of My Mother’s Holy and Immaculate heart will be recognized. You are My precious ones, I have called all of you here tonight in a special way. I will reward you for your faithfulness. I am blessing all of you with My grace of fortitude and faith. Be at peace now as you continue to walk in My light. I have given all of you the special blessing of the gift of Father Shamon to guide you. He is My beloved and devoted priest and is truly holy and anointed by his service and devotion to Me and to My holy and glorious Mother. Be at peace – I bless you and anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

January 23, 2003

Thursday, 11:27 – 11:34 pm

“My child, it is I, your Jesus, and how I delight in your love for Me. I desire for you to write, My dove. Be at peace for I am with you always.

“My child, I would like to tell you of things to come to prepare you and My faithful. A day not so far away in the near future, a great miracle will appear in the sky, preceded by claps of thunder never heard before by man with huge lightning bolts and a swift and furious wind. Then the light of My resurrection will pierce the sky. So many of My children who have been asleep will find themselves unprepared. But for My faithful, it will be an event of miraculous and supernatural proportions. I will fill each of you with My grace of understanding and knowledge, none of you shall fear for you will be enveloped in My peace. This will mark the beginning of the realization of My new era. I will gather all of you – My faithful, your families and those you recommend to Me. All will be given the chance to repent and to return to Me through the heart and hands of My holy and glorious Mother. So, My dear children, My faithful, sing songs of praise for the reign of My new era is at hand. Go and walk in My peace and truth, be My beacons of light and love to others – those especially in need of conversion.

“My love and peace are with you. Receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

February 10, 2003

Monday, 11:18 – 11:33 pm

“My precious child, it is I, your Jesus and I desire for you to write. Let My words of love resound in your heart. I have placed a seal of love, fidelity and zeal on your heart. My little dove, you belong to Me and I belong to you – I abide in you and you abide in Me.

“Little one, march on in faith. You are My soldier and great is your mission predestined by My Father. Many things will be asked of you. You will always receive My grace to endure any trial. You will soar on the wings of eagles; your prayers and requests rise up to Me where I await them with great love and anticipation. There is great upheaval in the troubled Middle East - for so many of My children are full of greed and pride, and they seek to destroy one another. I desire that My children live in peace and harmony. Pray that cold hearts will be blast open by My grace to see the truth, to seek only the truth, and the will of My Father. This is a great turning point in history. I have sent My Mother so many times to move the hearts and minds of My children, only My faithful have responded. My Father's patience has grown thin, sin is everywhere. Satan has infiltrated his evil everywhere. The innocent are no longer protected from his deceit and lies. Remember, he is the father of lies. I have granted you grace to discern this evil. When you encounter it in your midst, rebuke it in My name. I will cast him back to the fiery inferno from whence he came. He will no longer have any power over My people.

“The trumpets will sound, my angels, seraphim and elect stand ready to assist Me. For the triumph of My Mother's holy and immaculate heart is nearing its dawn. The light of My Resurrection will pierce the sky. The consciences of My people everywhere all over the world will be enlightened. My new era is at hand. The Church faces a great crisis. Pray for the Holy Father, Pope John Paul, My vicar on earth, as he leads My Church to new heights. For his enemies within My Church are great. They will be crushed by My Mother's heel. Trust Me, My precious pearl, as I lead you and My faithful out of this dark hour that has just begun to come over the world. Abandon yourselves, your families, and all those you recommend, to Me. This takes an act of pure faith; ask for this grace. It will be granted to whoever seeks it. For My desire is to bring all souls into My kingdom. My holy and glorious Mother pleads for all of her children at the throne of My Father. You are all safe - tucked away in the heart of My Mother. So rejoice and be glad, have no fear.

“Dear precious children, go forth now in My peace and love, be fervent in prayer and sacrifice. For I am your Jesus, I am the Alpha and the Omega; the way to the Father is through Me. I am with you all and I am blessing all of you tonight with My grace of fortitude and strength. Be still in My arms, rest in My peace. Receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

Sunday, 12:42 am

As I was sitting in the kitchen after receiving the most beautiful message of love and mercy from my sweet Lord and Savior, my Jesus requested that I extend my palms to Him. As I knelt, looking at my Lord, on the crucifix, I extended my palms and my arms were lifted upward as if they were floating. My palms were open and my hands were extended. Our Lord spoke with the sweetest of love and said, “I am piercing your palms with My love and healing. Lay your hands upon My people. Tell Father Shamon of My request.” My palms were burning with sweet love, they were very warm. It feels as if there are little bees buzzing in the center of my palms. All glory and praise be to my Jesus.

There appears to be a new indentation in my right palm. I have had an indentation on my left palm for about a year now. As I touch these spots, there is a sweet, burning, very warm love, generating from these spots. I prayed to the Holy Spirit to guide my thinking and my hands as I wrote down what I had experienced.

Wednesday, 12:28 – 12:46 am

“Mary, My precious dove, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write. I desire to dictate a message to you for all of My precious children.

“Children, how I delight in your love and fidelity of Me and that of My holy and glorious Mother. I have called each and every one of you here tonight in a very special way. It is I, your Jesus, that tugs at each of your hearts – beckoning you and calling you to unite yourselves to Me. Unite all of your joys and sorrows to My Most Sacred Heart. I am here waiting to dispense special graces on you and all those you recommend to Me. I wish for all of you to be My beacons of light, My ambassadors of peace. Oh, dear children, you live in troubled times. My faithful are few, My people do not hear My voice or recognize Me in their neighbor. Woe, to those, I say, who hear My voice and turn away, woe, to those, who are lukewarm. How much longer can I wait for My people to return to Me, to embrace My Sacraments and to live My Commandments? There are too many lukewarm hearts; these hearts I speak of, pain Me in a particular way. The love and prayers I receive from you, dear children, comforts Me and pours a soothing balm on My precious wounds.

“Dear children, I wish for you to prepare yourselves for the reign and triumph of My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart. What a miraculous day it will be when My Mother’s heart is triumphant. The birds of the sky will sing songs of sweet praise, perfume will fill the air, and all of the hierarchy of Heaven will be present with each of My faithful in a very special way. All of this has been foretold and soon will come into fruition. My faithful will be rewarded. Oh, children, if only you knew the depths of My treasures. Pray, dear ones, for all of My children who have strayed, for each belongs to Me. I gave My very life so that all will know eternal life. The reign of My new era is on the horizon. Things will begin to change rapidly – you must not let this alarm you. Even simple weather patterns will no longer be predictable; the wind will blow in new directions. None of this should alarm you, instead, recognize what I say and take delight, because this is a prelude of My miraculous reign. The angels will sound their trumpets; claps of loud thunder will be heard, huge bolts of lightening and a furious wind. Take refuge in My Most Sacred Heart and do not be alarmed for no harm shall come to you.

“Dear children, I am here with you tonight in a special way. My Mother has all of you and those you recommend to Me, wrapped in the mantle of her protection. She holds all of you so close to her holy and immaculate heart. Be at peace now, My precious ones, for I am your Jesus and you are My chosen little ones. I am with you always. Receive My special blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

Tuesday, 11:33 – 11:46 pm

“Mary, My precious pearl, My gem, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write. I wish to dictate My words of love and mercy to you and to all of My faithful flock.

“My precious children, how you move My most Sacred Heart by your love and prayers. Your love and faithfulness is a soothing balm to My most sacred wounds. I have called each and every one of you here tonight, in a very special way. I am rewarding you with special graces for your faithfulness. I have heard all of the petitions that lie deep within your hearts. You are all so very precious in My sight. You are My soldiers - as I continue to build My army - this is a special grace that I have granted to you. I wish for all of you to be beacons of light to others. When you encounter others, always show acts of kindness and love. Be steadfast in your quest for Me. I will always refresh you. Remember, I am your Shepherd and My desire is to guide all of you on the path of holiness. I walk beside you, and I go before you always. My arms are outstretched with love and mercy toward all of you, your families, and those you recommend to Me. I will always illuminate your path.

“Give Me all of your joys and sorrows and unite yourselves and all of your needs to My most Sacred Heart. You will find refuge there. Go forth in faith; I desire for all of you to have a strong faith. When you feel weak because of your humanness, call out to Me. I will fortify you with My love and grace. Continue to comfort My Mother. Your love and prayers move My Mother's heart – oh, how they move My Mother's heart. Does a mother deny her children anything, if it is for their greater good? My Mother pleads for you and for all of My children, at the throne of My Father. She desires for all of you to live in love and peace and to want for nothing. Children, do not hesitate to ask Me for all that you need through the intercession of My Mother, for nothing will be denied you if it is in accordance to My Holy Will.

"I desire for all of you to take great confidence in what I tell you. Recall My words, often, they will fortify you and keep you strong when you face adversity. March on, march on, My dear children, in My love and peace. You are all so very special in My eyes. I am dispensing special and unique graces on each one of you this evening. My love and peace are with you and will reign in all of your hearts. Receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

June 20, 2003

Saturday, 1:00 – 1:35 am

"My darling Mary, My precious pearl, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write.

"My daughter let Me pour out upon you My most precious blood. Let Me wash away all your iniquities in the passion of My most holy love, for you belong to Me. I will not tolerate your being deceived by anyone. Know, My precious child that I desire much for you and much will be asked of you. Let Me strengthen you as you embark on your journey, for you are led by My Spirit.

"In a short time, your time, My holy priests and religious will recognize that all of the gifts I have bestowed upon you come from Me, for your mission is the Will of My Father. All will know that this is the work of My hand. For My words, are sacred and My sons and daughters will recognize this, and the love that will permeate from My messages will resound in their hearts.

"March on victoriously My pearl, for this is a crucial hour in history. Mankind is on the brink of world changing events. Soon, all of My children will be awakened - those who have been asleep and who have put Me aside, will cry in terror. They will run and repent, many will run in shame, the world I have created will be rocked from its very foundation.

This is necessary to rid the world of evil; everywhere the evil one has wreaked havoc. The innocent are no longer protected; moral authority is lost. The evil one has even infiltrated My Church. I will no longer allow this. I am awakening My faithful to take up arms. Arms of truth, light, and love. They will be suited in holy armor and they will defend My Church as My Spirit rests upon them as they march on victoriously, reclaiming My Church, the true Church.

“I know all of this sometimes seems very far off in the future for My time is not your time and My ways are not your ways. Nevertheless, I tell you My precious pearl, soon, in your time, all of this will come into fruition. I will restore order and justice to the world I have created, the birds of the air will take flight, blades of grass will sway in the wind and new flowers will bloom. The wind will cradle My children with sweet and calming breezes, the waters of the world will be abundant with fish, and they will flow in harmonious splendor. Magnificent is My majesty, a gift for all of My chosen ones. My new era will usher in My new kingdom on earth, a land where milk and honey will flow. There will be no more poverty, hunger, sickness, or injustice. Everyone will live in the love and peace of My Father. Oh, rejoice My precious children, rejoice, for I will shower all of you with My treasures, and My treasures are vast and inexhaustible.

“All of My children and the whole universe will sing My praise. All of My Children will honor My holy and immaculate Mother. For the reign of My Mother’s holy and immaculate will be fulfilled. I am telling all of you this so that you will not lose heart when things start to unfold, for you do not know what is about to happen.

“Children, My faithful, I am with you. I will never abandon you; keep your sights on My holy and glorious Mother and Me. You have nothing to fear. I am asking all of you to pray, pray from your hearts - simple prayers from the heart please Me most. Cling tight to your rosaries, reciting them often, and recite My Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Let My love and peace reign in your hearts as you march on victoriously. I have formed many prayer cells all over the world. They are vast in number. These are My warriors, My army, My precious children who comfort Me and hold back My justice towards those who have refused to hear My voice. Woe to those I say, who have heard My voice and have turned their backs on Me. Perdition will surely be theirs.

“My mercy has fallen on deaf ears and My people refuse to listen to Me. This is so painful to Me because I gave My very life for all of My children that they would know eternal life. Pray for My children who have strayed, if only they knew how one look of love moves My heart. My darling daughter, time is running out for them to repent – pray, pray, pray. It is My Mother’s desire to save each and every one. However, My Father’s patience has grown thin, My divine justice will prevail. Always invoke the help of My Mother. She is with you always, calling all of her children to her and leading them back to Me. Nothing is impossible through the intercession of My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart.

“My precious Mary, I am pleased with your work as you continue to help My Mother by forming her army and bringing souls back to Me. I will continue to bless your work with My love and grace. Many healings and conversions will take place because of this. You will do great things in My name. I have bestowed many gifts on you, some you recognize and many I have kept hidden from you. I will continue to bestow My grace and gifts upon you because you are the littlest of My little ones in the eyes of the world. But in My eyes, you are My brilliant and precious pearl. I will lead you to great heights for you belong to Me. You are My betrothed and special is your place in Heaven – you will stand with My elect.

“Let My words resound in your heart, My precious daughter. I am with you always, leading you, along with My glorious Mother. My beloved Father Shamon is My gift to you. He will continue to lead and guide you on the road to holiness. My beloved and anointed, Father Shamon is a beacon of light and love. He will always illuminate your path as all of you continue to build My army.

“March on victoriously in My love. For I am your Jesus, and My love and favor rest upon all of you. Receive My very special blessing and anointing. I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

June 26, 2003

Thursday, 12:34 – 12:52 am

“Mary, delight of My heart, it is I, your Jesus and I desire for you to write.

“Little one, I desire for your heart not to be troubled. My words are sacred, My dove, and I will not allow you to be mislead. Step out in faith; continue to be My beacon of love and light to others. You are under the mantle of My Mother’s special protection. Everything I have told you will come to pass, you will see. Place all of your trust in Me as I continue to lead you on the path of holiness. Great is your mission, My dove, soon the winds will blow in new directions, to you it will be a sweet breeze that whispers only love as it passes. You will be filled with My Spirit. No harm will come to you or My faithful. I wish to prepare all of you for this very special time in history. My Spirit will come over the world that I have created. All of creation will respond, normal weather patterns will change. My plans will be revealed to you at the hour of My Father's choosing. I wish to prepare you for monumental events.

“My children who have been caught up in the world and who have turned their backs on Me will clamor and scatter in all directions. They will experience terrible fear. They will run and repent – no one will be refused My mercy if they have a sincere heart and are truly sorry for their failings. Be at peace My chosen ones, for you will all be beacons of light and love to others, especially to My children who have strayed and wish to return to Me. I am building My army of chosen souls, those who love Me and who have kept My commandments; those who by My grace, have fought the good fight and who desire to always be faithful to Me and to My holy and glorious Mother. Now, these things I speak of, are not to alarm you. On the contrary, they are to fortify you, prepare and strengthen you. For all of you belong to Me. I am your Lord and your God and it is My desire to bestow My gifts upon you.

“My Spirit will continue to nourish and fortify you and lead you all victoriously into My new kingdom that I will establish. The hour is fast approaching when My holy angels will sound their trumpets, the Heavens will shake and the earth will tremble, as My majestic splendor, led by My Spirit, will come over the world that I have created. A new and glorious day will dawn. My Mother's holy and immaculate heart will be triumphant – all of My children will give honor and glory to My Mother. It will be a day no man has seen. Glorious will be this day. All of My creation will respond. A day of majestic beauty and splendor will resound. My peace will come over all of My faithful in a most profound way. Heaven will rejoice as all of those who have strayed and who desire My mercy, return to Me through the heart and hands of My Mother.

“So, My dear children, rejoice and be glad, for My favor rests upon you, My chosen people. I will bring you all out of the darkness into the light of My kingdom; a new and glorious day will dawn. Be at peace now My children, for you belong to Me and I will not abandon you. Receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

June 29, 2003
Sunday, 12:12 – 12:34 am

“Mary, My precious pearl and My dove, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write.

“Little one, I desire to dictate to you My words of love and mercy. If only you knew, how much you are loved by Me. I desire to flood your soul with My graces of wisdom and knowledge. Seek Me first, My Mary, in all that you do, I will continue to lead you. My Spirit will come upon you in new and profound ways, to strengthen and fortify you. You have no need to worry, My precious pearl, for I, your Jesus, your Lord and your God, protect you. No harm shall ever come to you, My precious pearl and delight of My heart, for you belong to Me. You are My chosen one and My betrothed; great is your place in Heaven. Have no fear and proceed in faith for I am with you and will never leave your side as you continue to help My holy and glorious Mother build My army.

“I wish to talk to you about the visions I have shown you in the sun. When you see the ships sailing on the horizon – this is My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart reaching the shore, the summit. The hour is fast approaching when the triumph of My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart will be fulfilled. My ships are heralded in upon the rough and unstable waters of the tide – then My Spirit will come over the water calming the waves and restricting the tide, producing a glacial tranquility.

“My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart is a safe refuge for all of My children. My mother will guide My children back to Me in ways as mighty as the wind and as calm as the tide amongst distant shores. My prophets, before you, have foretold all. Men have been warned many times – My Father has sent My Mother among you so many times with My messages of love and mercy, but so many have turned a deaf ear to the pleas of My Mother. Very few have been faithful and My Mother’s heart breaks for the loss of so many of her children to the evil one. I am asking My faithful to take up arms of love, light, and truth, and assist My Mother in these final hours in bringing many of My children back to Me.

“I do not want My holy and immaculate Mother to suffer any more because of the ungrateful hearts of men – men that have turned their backs on Me and who do not desire the truth. Their arrogance has caused their indifference to the truth. How long must I wait? My Father’s patience has grown thin and My justice will prevail. This is a crucial hour in history. Prepare your hearts, dear children, by fasting, prayer, and sacrifice. Receive Me often in the Holy Eucharist, keep My commandments and attend confession. Do not be as the wedding brides were, without their oil. I wish you to be prepared, for My divine justice is at hand. I have united My prayer groups in love, with one spirit and one truth. This is how you will recognize who has been called forth by Me to form My army of faithful souls. Persevere and march on victoriously as I lead you all into My kingdom the kingdom of God, the kingdom of the Most High.

“My little gem, My Mary, you have been entrusted to My beloved Father Shamon, he is your beacon of light and truth. Listen to him as he continues to lead you on the path of holiness. He is your spiritual armor, your beacon of light and truth. For this is the Will of My Father.

“My darling gem, receive My kiss of mercy and pardon. I bless you and anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

July 8, 2003

Tuesday, 11:20 – 11:39 pm

“Mary, My precious pearl, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write.

“My little dove, how I have waited to dictate to you My message of love and mercy for you and all of My faithful flock. Cast your doubts and worries aside, they do not come from Me, for I am your Lord and your God and I will not allow you to be deceived. Continue to step out in faith for your mission is just beginning. This mission, I speak of, has been predestined by My Father. Long before you were born you were called to fulfill My Father’s Holy Will. As My Father has sent His prophets before you, now He sends you.

“As in the House of Jacob, * you too will be called to great things. Set your sights on Me, My dove, for through My grace, you will never be led astray. Great and powerful is your mission, as you continue to feed My people by your example of faith. My children are starved for the truth, and far too many have cast aside My teachings. They are wandering aimlessly in the ways of the world; they are lost to their foolish vanities and pride. They do not recognize Me in their neighbor and they do not recognize what is holy. They are on the path to their own destruction, I desire you to continue to be My beacon of light and truth. My faithful will gravitate toward you because it will be Me they recognize in you.

“Let not your heart be troubled, My precious pearl. You are bathed in the light of My mercy and pardon. No task will be too great for you; for I am your strength – I walk in front of you always and I walk beside you. I am continually guiding you and calling you to greater heights; for you are My precious gem and nothing will be refused you if it is in accordance to My Holy Will. Soon, the numbers of My faithful will multiply; they will be more demanding of your time. Let your spirit soar and take flight to new heights, for I will continue to work through you. I will perform certain and specific miracles through you - for My people are in great need. Go forth, you are wrapped in your baptismal cloak.

“Soon, certain events of tremendous magnitude will take place. My children will be strengthened by My love and My grace. The day of enlightenment is fast approaching – every one of My children will be enlightened. Each will receive the grace to see the state of their souls as My Father sees them. For most, they will recognize this grace and will flock to My Church. So great will be the number, My priests should be ready to assist them, for they will seek to be reconciled to Me. And for those with a sincere heart, My mercy will be theirs. For others, they will run the other way, for their hearts have hardened. Pray for these children, they need much prayer.

“Now, dear children prepare your hearts. Seek only to do My will, keep My commandments, attend confession and receive Me often in the Holy Eucharist. I am your Jesus, your Lord and your God, and I am with you always. I desire you to pray with simple hearts and live the messages that I have given to you and those messages sent to you through My Holy and Immaculate Mother. You are all under My Mother’s special protection. Have no fear, go forth in My peace. My dear children, My special children, I anoint you and I bless you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

* I did not know anything about the House of Jacob and so I took my bible and asked the Holy Spirit to guide me to the correct place in the bible. I opened to The Book of the prophet Jeremiah.

July 16, 2003
Wednesday 1:00 - 1:19 am

“Mary, My precious pearl, My dove, it is I, your Jesus, how I desire for you to write. My precious child, My most Sacred Heart is your divine abode. Rest in My Spirit, My dove. I will raise you to great heights, persevere and march on victoriously I am with you - leading you all the way; for I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.

“My darling daughter, I wish to speak to you of My children, who refuse to listen to Me, who refuse to be led by My Spirit, for they have hardened their hearts, oh if only they realized that the things of this world are vain. Vanity keeps them proud and boastful, if only they would set their sights on Me - they would realize what I offer is eternal life. My treasures are vast and inexhaustible, if only they would open their hearts to Me, I would reveal to them My omnipotence. But for so many, even when they have received My grace, they are so caught up in the world and what it offers, they cannot hear Me. Oh, foolish men, how they will cry in vain. They will be lost to their foolish vanities, pride, and ego. Oh, woe to them, I say, who have heard My voice and have not listened. The time is fast approaching when My divine justice will come over the world. Those foolish men I speak of, who are perverse in thought and deed, will cry and wail and grind their teeth as they all are sent to their perdition brought on by their own hand. For them it will be better to have not been born.

“I have heard My peoples cry, My faithful people. My mercy and love will be theirs. They will be rewarded for their faithfulness and perseverance; they will partake in My majestic splendor and will reap the fruits of their service to Me. Nothing will be refused them in accordance to My Holy Will. My majestic splendor will reign over the world that I have created. It will be a new paradise not even known to Adam and Eve. My Spirit will live and reign in everyone. The triumph of My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart will be fulfilled, all of Heaven will rejoice. Have faith, My precious children, even though the world you now live in is full of uncertainty and chaos.

“I am your Jesus, your Lord and your God. I live within all of your hearts and I will never abandon you. Have no fear I will grant all of you the grace of fortitude and perseverance. Let not your hearts be troubled, My peace is with you always. You are My soldiers; stay steadfast in holy armor as I lead you all victoriously into My Kingdom, the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of the Most High. Dear children, My chosen ones, receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

July 23, 2003

Wednesday, 8:01 - 8:29 am

“Mary, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write. Oh, delight of My heart, how it pleases Me to dictate My messages of love and mercy to you and all of My faithful flock. It is My desire to flood your soul with My peace and infinite grace, for special graces are reserved for My anointed ones. From the deepest depths of My mercy to My most sacred and all consuming love, let Me pierce your heart with the flames of My divine love, for you belong to Me, I am your Lord and your God and My favor rests upon you.

“All along, My precious dove; I have been fortifying and preparing you. Now, I will continue to call you out upon your mission that has been predestined by My Father. For you will continue to lead My people out of the darkness into the light.

“In the near future, My children will all experience a miraculous event at the same moment in time, all over the world I have created. Each person will be suspended by My grace. They will experience the enlightenment of their souls, they will know all of their transgressions, their souls will be illuminated, and they will see the state of their souls as My Father sees them. At the same time, My faithful will be blessed with My peace. Fear shall not overcome them. For others, they will experience fear and confusion for they have not taken the time to know Me. They have not practiced My teachings or kept My Commandments. This will be a time that My Church will have never known - in such great numbers, they will abandon their everyday duties. My priests should be prepared to assist them, for all will seek to be reconciled with Me. There will be a period of three days when the earth I have created will be blanketed in darkness. This is necessary as I rid the world of evil. I will give all of you more instructions in the future, but I tell you, those who love Me will feel My peace. For the dawn of My new earth will be brought to its fruition. My spirit will come over the world in such a way a new paradise will be formed - a paradise not even known to Adam and Eve before they fell victim to the evil one.

“My desire is to prepare all of you. Soon the banner that My Mother once told you of will be realized. This banner will be a gift to My faithful, given to you by My holy and immaculate Mother. This is the prelude to the triumph of My Mother's holy and immaculate heart.

“Now, dearest children, practice what I have told you, live My commandments, receive Me often in the Holy Eucharist, make the Sacrament of Reconciliation a regular practice. For I desire all of you to be My beacons of love and light to others, this is very important as I continue to build My army. For I desire to use you in this way - you will all be My disciples of peace to others; for not all have been given such extraordinary gifts by Me. Let My people know of My love for them, share My love with them as I have shared My love with you. Each and every one of you has been called here in a profound way. As My daughter's mission continues to unfold, so have you, dear children, been given the grace to experience the unfolding of this great mission so that you too will be examples to others by your allegiance to Me and My holy and immaculate Mother.

“So, now I tell you, go forth in My peace to do My bidding for I love you with an everlasting love. You all are wrapped in the mantle of My Mother's maternal love and will know no fear. It has given Me great joy to share My messages of love and mercy with you. March on victoriously, My doves, in My peace and love. I have blessed all of you with the gift of My beloved and anointed priest, Father Shamon. Listen to him as he continues to shepherd all of you at this crucial time in history.

“Mary, My beloved. My precious pearl, you belong to Me. You are kept hidden in the deepest chambers of My most Sacred Heart. You are My bright and shining pearl. I anoint you with special and significant graces as you continue to step out and fulfill My mission for you and My faithful. Your love is a soothing balm to My most sacred wounds. I bless you and I anoint you with My profound love and grace. Great is your mission, My pearl. Great is your mission. Receive My kiss of mercy and pardon. I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

July 30, 2003

Wednesday, 12:02 - 12:27 am

“Mary, My precious pearl, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire you to write.

“Oh, delight of My heart, you are the littlest of My children and you bring Me much delight by your ardent faith and desire to serve Me. I am your Lord and your God. I am King of kings and Lord of lords. Rejoice, My precious pearl, for I desire to share My message of love and mercy with you and all of My faithful children.

“Oh, dear children, what pleasure you give Me by your presence here tonight. I have called each of you and My grace is with you. I have opened My most Sacred Heart to all of you gathered here tonight. Unite all of your joys and sufferings to My most Sacred Heart and I will refresh all of you. Be still in your hearts and know that I am your Jesus, your Lord and your God. Be still in the present moment and be attentive to me always in the present moment. This is a great grace that I give to you. Do not worry about what tomorrow will bring. You have enough to do today. Place all of your trust in Me. Surrender your hearts to My Divine Will. This takes a tremendous act of trust - but in this trust, you will find peace and solace and then you will be able to hear My murmurings of love with each beat of your hearts. My precious children, much will be asked of you as you continue on the road of holiness with Me. When human weakness would have you act one way, I desire you to only act out of love. For I am Love.

“The day is fast approaching when your faith will be tested. Recall all of My words of love and mercy to you, be strong and stay steadfast in your quest for Me. When the winds blow in one direction resist them, when the tide flows in the opposite direction, go against the current. Do what you know to be right and true, for I am Truth.

“All of you have been given significant graces by Me to stand united and to stand as one. Unite to My most Sacred Heart and to My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart. Take flight like the birds of the sky and let your spirit soar as you ascend to new heights and are enlightened and guided by My Spirit. My love and protection are with each and every one of you. March on victoriously, you are My soldiers forming My army of holy souls, you must suit yourselves in holy armor - be kind, encourage and help one another.

“Be at peace dear children, as I continue to call all of you to be My beacons of love and light to others. Free yourselves from being judgmental when you see those less fortunate than you. See Me first in them and always respond with love. For it is only with love that My army will rise up. Your weapons are the rosary, love, and truth. For I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.

“Run to My Mother, often, you are all surrounded by My Mother’s mantle of love and protection. You are living in precarious times and this is a crucial hour in history. Soon My Spirit will descend upon all of My children. There will be a great illumination of conscience. There will be light, love, and victory. After the Tribulation, My peace will reign. My new Kingdom will be established and My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart will be triumphant. Rejoice and be glad for you, My dear children, will know the glory of My new era. What a miraculous day it will be. There will be no more poverty, hunger, or sickness, only beauty, order, and love as the sun rises and sets on a glorious new earth.

“There is much work to do, dear children. Be My Mother’s ambassadors of love and peace and let My love reign in each and everyone of your hearts. I am extending My very special blessings, blessings that are reserved for My faithful, on each of you this evening. The love that reigns in My most Sacred Heart and the immaculate heart of My Mother rests upon you this evening.

“I bless you and anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

August 12, 2003

Tuesday, 11:22 - 11:41 pm

“Mary, it is I, your Jesus, and now I desire for you to write for you are My pearl and My dove. I desire to dictate this message of mercy and love to you and all of My precious children.

“Children, know that I am Jesus, your Lord and your God. I have called each and every one of you here tonight. For it is My desire to shower My graces upon each and every one of you. It is I, who tugs at your hearts when you feel murmurings of love; it is I who beseech you to grow ever closer to Me for I desire that you all enter into the depths of My Divine Love. This requires trust, trust Me, children, give Me all of your concerns, your joys and your sorrows. Unite yourselves to Me, I will never abandon you, when you feel weary, I will refresh you, and when you feel overwhelmed by the daily pressures of life, I will renew you. For My faithful who desire to walk in My light and grace My peace will be with you as you all advance in holiness.

“The world you live in is uncertain and full of chaos, do not let this trouble you for each of you will be guided by the truth. I am the Way and the Truth and the Life. From Me, all sources of goodness flow - when you walk in My light, when you follow Me, nothing can disturb you. I desire that you all be My beacons of love and light to others; follow My teachings and stay true to My word. Keep My commandments, especially return to confession so that when you receive Me in the Holy Eucharist, your souls will be flooded with My peace and grace. I wish for all of you to stand firm in faith, do not falter when the winds of change blow in new directions, your faith will be tested, but only in proportion to My grace. I am fortifying, cleansing, and strengthening all of you for trials that lie ahead of you. The road of holiness is not easy and it is only attainable by My grace. Ask Me for graces often, call out to Me - I am with you. Seek the help and intercession of My Mother, if only you realized the gift of My Mother's love to all of you. My holy and glorious Mother pleads for all of you at the throne of My Father. Give honor and praise to My Mother, for it is through the intercession of My Mother that all things are obtained. If only you knew the sadness My Mother feels as she sees My children advancing to their own perdition because they have turned their backs on Me. They no longer hear My voice and are so caught up in the ways of the world; they are slaves to the adversary.

"Children, how long must I wait? My justice will be theirs; My Father's patience has grown thin. The time of My justice is at hand. I have sent My Mother among you so many times but My Mother's pleas have fallen on deaf ears. It is only My faithful who console Me and it is only My faithful who bring My Mother joy. March on dear children; march on victoriously as you form My army of souls.

"I am calling all of My children back to Me. Fear not, for I tell you I stand before you, I walk beside you, and I will never abandon you. If only you knew how precious you are in My sight and how loved you are by Me. I am rewarding all of you for your faithfulness to Me and to My Mother. Tonight, receive My special graces and blessings. I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Tuesday, 11:26- 11:45 pm

"Mary, it is I, your Jesus, little delight of My heart. Your love for Me is that of a beautiful essence of the sweetest of perfumes. You are My beautiful dove, My pearl, how I desire your love, little one. I wish to dictate a message of love and mercy to you for all of My children.

"Children, know that I am your Jesus, your Lord and your God. You are all My precious children and how I want each and every one of you to know how special you are to Me. Your faithfulness and love please Me so much. On the road to Calvary, it was you, dear children that comforted Me in My agony. Remember, that I am the Lord of Hearts and I know what is written in each of your hearts, do not hesitate to call out to Me for I am with you always.

"My Father desires that all of you seek My mercy; for My mercy is overflowing for all of you. These are dark and troubled times you live in, evil is everywhere, brought on by the sinfulness of ungrateful men, men that are full of greed, hatred, and lust. Oh foolish men, what will their foolish vanities gain them? They no longer seek the truth; they are blinded by their ungratefulness and pride. I am calling all of them to repent and to seek My mercy before it is too late. Soon, the breath of My Spirit will come over the world and each and every person will know that I am their Lord and their God. All of their transgressions will pass by their eyes; so many will cry in shame and seek repentance. This illumination of conscience is a great gift that will be given to mankind by the Grace of My Father, calling all of My children back to Me.

“My holy and glorious Mother will stand triumphant, all of the angels and seraphim and all of the hierarchy of Heaven will usher in My new era of peace and joy. Prepare your hearts now My faithful, stay true to My teachings, love the Lord your God with your whole heart and soul. Desire Me first in all that you do, seek only to do My will. Attend confession often, receive Me worthily in the Holy Eucharist, love one another, be compassionate and kind and do not judge one another.

“I wish for all of you to know what special blessings and graces you are receiving as you hear and receive My word. My words are sacred. Continue to follow Me on the road of holiness. The road of holiness is not easy you must die to yourselves; this goes against the ways of the world but gains you the riches of Heaven. It is only attainable by My grace - the grace that I am bestowing on each and every one of you. I desire when you pray to be as little children, prayers from the heart are what please Me most.

“Take great confidence in what I tell you. Stay close to My holy and immaculate Mother and make praying the rosary a daily practice in your homes. The rosary is one of your greatest weapons against your adversary. My Mother longs for all of her children to return to Me. My Mother is always with you, if only you realized the depths of her maternal love. I wish for all of you to feel My peace. I am bestowing special graces on each and every one of you. Thank you for your love. Receive My special graces and blessing. I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

Message from Our Lady of the Finger Lakes

August 27, 2003

Wednesday, 11:59 - 12:10 am (St. Jude's Church, Rochester, NY)

“Mary, my precious daughter, I am the Holy Mother of God, your Mother, and I desire for you to write. I am blessing all of my children with a message of love and peace, allowed by God the Father.

“Dear children, how your presence here this evening pleases my Jesus. Children, each and every one of you are so very dear to Us. We desire you to be united in prayer, love, and good works.

“This is a time of great mercy. I am calling all of my children back to my Jesus, the very source of life. Children, be true to my Son's teachings, keep His Commandments, return, I tell you, return to the sacrament of penance, receive my Jesus often in the Holy Eucharist, be kind and compassionate to one another and help the less fortunate. I desire for all of you to keep your sights on holy things, seek only to do God's Will. Put God first, only then will you find true peace. I am asking all of you to be my beacons of love and light to others. I am beckoning all of you to return to my Jesus.

“The road of holiness is not easy, it requires sacrifice, and one must die to himself to gain eternal life. This is only possible through grace. My Jesus holds all of you in the depths of His most Sacred Heart. He is your refuge from the daily worries of life. Do not let the adversary distract you by the ways of the world. Do not focus on the past or the future, surrender to the present moment. This is a true gift. Then you will find peace.

“You are all so dear to my holy and immaculate heart. All of you, your families and those you recommend to me, are wrapped in the mantle of my love and protection. Step out in faith, my dear children, as you advance on the road of holiness. I am blessing all of you with my peace and love this evening. Thank you for your faithfulness. Peace, dear children, peace.”

September 2, 2003
Tuesday, 11:07 - 11:18 pm

“Mary, little one, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write. Fear not little one, I am with you always. Proceed in faith as I call you out upon your mission that has been predestined by My Father.

“I am calling all of you, dear children, to unite your hearts to Me. I am calling you in a very special way...in the way of holiness. I am cloaking all of you with holy armor and flooding your souls with My light and grace. For I desire that, all of you walk in My truth and be examples of goodness and light to others. Let your faith in My love and mercy radiate from you to others. The time of grace is still at hand; the time of My mercy is with you. I desire for all of you to give honor and praise to My Mother, for she is your Mother. When you call out to My Mother in confidence and confide all of your joys and sorrows to her, you will be filled with peace. My Mother pleads for all of you at the throne of My Father. The triumph of My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart is on the horizon. What a miraculous day it will be. The angels and seraphim stand ready to sound the trumpets - all of the hierarchy of Heaven await this glorious event. I am calling all of you forward and I desire for all of you to live holy lives and keep your sights on Me. Stay true to My teachings for the dawn of My new era is at hand.

“Cling tight to your rosaries, the rosary is your greatest weapon against your adversary. Walk in My peace, walk in My truth and march on victoriously. Stay close to My Mother, for all things are obtained through My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart.

“Today is a great day of grace for all of you, you are My privileged few and I desire for all of you to contemplate and to meditate on My messages of love and mercy. Put My words into practice and live My messages.

“My peace, love, and mercy are with all of you, your families, and those you recommend to Me, in a very special way. Receive My blessing - I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

September 14, 2003
Sunday, 11:17 - 11:35 pm

“Mary, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write, for you are My dove and My beautiful pearl. Advance in faith; cast all doubts aside. Do you not know that I am with you always? I desire your heart to be as a little child, open and trusting.

“I am pleased with your work, little one. A great mission has been entrusted to you. All for My glory and allowed by My Father. My peace and grace are abundant for all of My children. I am the very source of life, the font of all mercy. I am beckoning all of My children to Me. I desire for all of My children to know Me in a most intimate way.

“I am dictating this message to you for all of My faithful flock. Today, as in the times of old, My faithful are few. Men are caught up in the ways of the world. They are arrogant, boastful, and full of pride. What will this gain them? When they seek My mercy, they will hide their heads in shame for they did not take the time to know Me. They have taken things for granted and have not made their time here on earth fruitful. They served their adversary. Foolish men, their hearts have grown cold, they are full of ingratitude and arrogance. I am calling My children to repent for My mercy is still at hand. The time is coming close when My Father’s justice will come over the world. The world I have created is in a volatile place, brought on by the sins of foolish men. How long will they be indifferent to My grace and mercy?

“Repent, children. I am calling you to repent and to change your ways, to choose God and to choose holiness. The way of holiness is not easy, it requires sacrifice and it requires one to die to ones self, to put on the cloak of righteousness and to turn the other way when you meet adversity. When you are scoffed at and mocked, you must respond with love for My name’s sake. For those that belong to Me are little, humble, and kind. My love radiates from the lowly. I am calling all of you to divine truth and to stand up for what is right. Do not follow the crowd for you will surely be misled. Stand your ground; recall your Baptismal vows. You are reflections of My Spirit, imitate My virtues and live holy and simple lives. For surely I tell you, to acquire things of this world will be useless to you in the next. Set your sights on eternal life. I desire for all of you to abide in Me, open your hearts to Me; I am your Lord and your God, the Alpha and the Omega. If only you could realize how much I love you.

“Give honor and praise to My Mother for she is the Seat of all Wisdom and all grace. Everything is possible through the intercession of My Mother's holy and immaculate heart. Love My Mother and be Her ambassadors of light and love. Be kind to one another and do not judge one another. Receive My sacraments often. Make the Sacrament of Penance a regular practice; receive Me often in the Holy Eucharist. Live My commandments - as I continue to call all of you deeper and deeper into My divine love.

“Children, receive My special blessing and anointing. I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

Message from Our Lady of the Finger Lakes

October 7, 2003

Tuesday - (Church of the Holy Spirit, Webster, NY)

“My precious daughter, I am the Holy Mother of God, and I desire for you to write. I desire to give you a message for all of my faithful children.

“Children, I am beckoning out to all of you with an urgent plea. I am calling all of you to my Jesus, for I wish for all of you to walk in truth, and to experience true peace. You are all so very precious to me. I have heard all of the petitions, which lie in your hearts; I am bringing all of them to my Jesus. Continue to step out in faith and be my beacons of love and light to others. Let the love and peace of my Jesus reign in your hearts. You need to follow my Son's teachings - stay true to His commandments, receive the sacrament of penance often and receive my Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Be strong as you advance in faith on the road of holiness. The road of holiness is not easy it requires sacrifice and self-denial. One must die to oneself - this requires an act of trust. Trust in my Jesus, He is your salvation.

“I am keeping all of you under my mantle of love and protection, and all those you recommend to me. Children, do not let my pleas fall on deaf ears. Realize the great grace you have been allowed by God the Father during this time of mercy.

“I am with all of you. Thank you for your faithfulness, thank you for leaving the comfort of your homes as you have gathered in prayer and love. My peace and protection are with all of you.”

October 15, 2003
Wednesday, 5:45 pm

“Mary, child, I am your Mother, the Holy Mother of God. My Son, Jesus, desires to dictate a message of love and mercy to you and all of my faithful flock.

“Children, I am your Jesus, your Lord and your God. I have called each and every one of you here tonight in a special way. You are My faithful remnant - My grace I bestow upon you. I desire you to always seek to do the will of the Father. I desire that you spend time in prayer each day and I desire you to be still and let My Spirit guide you. I am with you in a very special way. Turn the noise of the world away from you.

“Today, the adversary has set so many traps for you. So many things of the world distract you and that is why it is so important to take time to be quiet. The world you live in is uncertain. I desire you to stay suited in holy armor. Keep My commandments and stay true to My teachings. Receive the sacraments, especially attend confession on a regular basis and receive Me often in the Holy Eucharist; for it is in this way, you will receive the grace to stay on the road of holiness to which I call you.

“Realize My presence among you, realize My gifts that I am bestowing on you - live My messages. You are My favored people - do not take this for granted. For My words are true, I am Truth. I tell you My words are sacred. I desire you to give honor and glory to My Mother. Do not let My Mother’s pleas fall on deaf ears. My Father has sent My Holy and Immaculate Mother to you so often with messages of love. How many listen to My Mother’s pleadings? For so many, My Mother’s pleas fall on deaf ears.

“Stand up for what is right - do not be so easily misled by the ways of the world. Keep your lives simple and holy. My new era is on the horizon and I desire you to be prepared. For now, understand that My mercy is still at hand but soon; My Father’s justice will prevail. I have given you a very special gift - the gift of My Mother’s protection. My Mother pleads for all of you and those you recommend to her at the throne of My Father.

“Children, tonight I am blessing you all with My grace and My love. Receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

Message from Our Lady of the Finger Lakes for Her children at Saint John's Church in Camden, New York

October 21, 2003

Tuesday, 11:30 pm

“Mary, my little dove, it is I, your Mother. The Holy Mother of God and I desire to dictate a message of love and mercy to you for all of my faithful flock.

“Oh dear children, how your presence here this evening pleases my Jesus. My presence here tonight and my message of love to you has been allowed by God the Father. Your prayers and sacrifices are a soothing balm to my Son Jesus’ most precious wounds. I desire for all of you to be on the road of holiness - that which you have been called to. The road of holiness is not easy, it requires sacrifice and self-denial; one must die to oneself. This is only possible through grace.

“Keep my Son’s commandments and stay true to His teachings. Return to the sacraments - return, I tell you, return to confession. Receive my Son often in the Holy Eucharist; this is where you will find true peace.

“The world you live in is uncertain, this is a crucial time in history. I am calling all of you to my Jesus, do not let my pleas fall on deaf ears. Each and every one of you has been called here this evening. This is a great gift my Son has bestowed upon you and on your parish. Do not follow the crowd; stand up for what is right. Your faith will be tested and for those of you that live in the light of my Son’s resurrection, all things are possible and you will be granted the grace to resist the winds of change. This is a time of great mercy. I am calling all of you to choose for God. I am calling each and every one of you to renew your baptismal vows and to stay true to my Son’s teachings.

“I have heard the cries of my people - my faithful remnant. I have heard the petitions that lie in your hearts and I am bringing all of them to my Jesus. Have confidence as you proceed on the road of holiness and know that each and every one of you, your families, and those you recommend to me are under the mantle of my protection.

“Dear children, my peace and love are with you. I will never leave you; have confidence in what I tell you. Thank you for your faithfulness. Peace, dear children, peace.”

October 29, 2003
Wednesday, 5:09 pm

“My child, it is I, your Jesus, and I desire for you to write. I desire to dictate a message of love and mercy for all of My children.

“Children, know that I am your Jesus, your Lord and your God. It is My desire to shower upon you special graces and blessings. I have called each and every one of you here tonight in your own unique way. Once again, I am asking you to stay suited in holy armor; this is necessary to continue on the road of holiness. It is not easy to fight the good fight. The distractions of the world are all around you. Your adversary has set every possible trap; you must remain aware of this. Do not allow yourselves to be victims to evil.

“You were created in My image and likeness, you need to imitate My virtues, and stay true to My teachings. Keep your hearts open to the pleas of My Mother. My Mother’s presence among you is an inconceivable gift to you. Do not take this for granted; and for those who are weak of heart, let My words enkindle a strong desire within you to respond to My love. If only you realized the gifts you have been given and the graces that have been bestowed upon you as you venture out in faith, responding to the tugs of My love in your hearts.

“Children, realize that My treasures are vast and My gifts to you, inexhaustible. Stay close to My Mother for she is your refuge in the storm, she is your fortress. One day, your faith will be tested, but for those of you who truly desire to live in the light of My resurrection, victory will be yours.

“I desire that you renew yourselves daily by taking time out, take time to be still and take time to be quiet. Unite yourselves to Me in prayer. Prayer from the heart is what pleases Me most. I will strengthen and fortify you and I will grant you peace.

“Continue, each one of you, to follow Me. I walk before you with outstretched arms making sure all of My sheep are protected as I lead you on the road of holiness. It is My Mother’s desire to lead all of you back to Me. It pains My Mother’s holy and immaculate heart as she watches her children turn their backs on Me. My Mother pleads for all of My children at the throne of My Father. Help My Mother by acts of prayer, self- sacrifice and love, as she continues to call My lost sheep home.

“Tonight, I am blessing all of you with My ardent love and grace. Receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

Message from Our Lady of the Finger Lakes

November 5, 2003
Wednesday, 6:25 am

“Mary, my daughter, I am the Holy Mother of God, your Mother. I desire to dictate a message of love to you for all of my faithful children.”

“Children, know that I am the Holy Mother of God, your Mother. I desire for all of you to continue on the road of holiness – this is necessary for your sanctification. All of you should do the best jobs you can do in whatever station of life you have been called to. Go about your days practicing acts of kindness and consecrate yourselves and all that you do to my Jesus. You will see the fruit of your work blossom.

“Children, this is a desperate hour and I am calling all of you to my Jesus. I am asking you once again to be my ambassadors and I am asking for much prayer for all of my children who have strayed, and who have chosen not to respond to love – not to respond to my Jesus, for He is love. Keep my Son’s commandments, stay true to His teachings, receive the Sacrament of Penance at least once a month and receive my Jesus often in the Holy Eucharist.

“Dear children, I am extending my Maternal blessing upon all of you. I hold each and every one of you, your families, and all those you recommend to me, close to my holy and immaculate heart. Be at peace now. My peace and love are with you.”

Wednesday 4:15 pm

“My child, it is I, your Jesus, and how I desire to dictate this message of love and mercy to you and all of My faithful flock. “Know children, that I am Jesus the Christ. I am your salvation. I am the redeemer of the world. I have bestowed significant graces upon all of you. I am beckoning at the door of all of your hearts. Not all of you respond to My love. Do not be afraid to open your hearts to me. I have called each and every one of you here in a very special way. I have united all of you in love from the depths of My most Sacred Heart. “I wish for all of you to be My eyes, My ears, My feet and My hands to your brothers and sisters. Be

My true beacons of love and light to others. Do not allow yourselves to be misled by pride. There is no room for this in My divine plan. “I tell you, reconcile with one another. Let My spirit of truth and love radiate from you. Help My immaculate Mother to bring souls to Me by your witness in the world. The time is near when worldly comforts will cease. You must set your sights on that which is holy and stay suited in holy armor. I wish to strengthen all of you. Receive the sacrament of penance so that you may receive Me worthily in the Holy Eucharist - which is My Body. If only you realized the grace that has been bestowed on you.

“March on victoriously as you continue on the road of holiness. Realize that My words to you are sacred. Unite yourselves to My most Sacred Heart and to the immaculate heart of My Mother. I am bestowing many blessings upon you this evening. Continue to be faithful to My call and to the call of My holy and immaculate Mother. “I bless you and anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

January 7, 2004

Wednesday, 12:50 pm

“Mary, it is your Jesus. Delight of My heart, you are My precious pearl. I desire to dictate a message of love and mercy to all of My faithful flock.

“Rejoice children of Israel, for I, your Jesus, knock at the doors of your hearts. I desire for all of you to be open and little – ask for this grace. I desire for all of you to be open to My call. You are suited in holy armor; you are My remnant faithful. Look around you, see My love, and light in the eyes of your neighbors. See My abundant grace.

“I have heard your cries, place your trust in Me, and give Me all of your burdens, worries, and concerns. I will make your burden light. Come and follow Me. Give honor and praise to My Mother; realize the great gift of My love and mercy that has been imparted to you. You are all under the mantle of My Mother’s protection. Stay steadfast in your quest for Me. Stand strong and firm in your faith.

“Be at peace, rest in My Spirit, rest in My arms for I am your Lord and your God and I will never leave you. Receive My abundant blessings and grace. I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

Our Lady of the Finger Lakes Apostolate Mission at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Syracuse, New York

Message from Our Lady of the Finger Lakes as given to Mary S. Reilly on Sunday, February 1, 2004

"Mary, my Child, I am the Holy Mother of God, your Mother. I desire to dictate a message of love for all of my faithful children.

"Children of my heart, I am the Holy Mother of God, your Mother. I have called each and every one of you here today in a very special way. Thank you, dear children, for leaving the comfort of your homes to unite in prayer and to adore my Son, present in the Blessed Sacrament. Oh dear children, if only you could realize how much I love you. Continue to step out in faith, unite yourselves in prayer and in sacrifice. Stay true to my Son's teachings – return, I tell you, return to the sacraments. Attend confession at least monthly so that you will receive my Son worthily in the Holy Eucharist.

"I am asking you all to join me in prayer, pray for my Church, which is undergoing a great trial. Pray for my pope and continue to be steadfast in your quest for the truth. Be confident and joyful as you continue on the road of holiness. This requires self-sacrifice; one must die to oneself. Reconcile with your neighbor and let the love of my Son, Jesus, radiate in all of your hearts.

"Children, today I am blessing you with my peace and my grace. Peace, children, peace."

Message from Our Lady of the Finger Lakes as given to Mary S. Reilly on Wednesday, February 4, 2004

"Mary, I am the Holy Mother of God, your Mother, and how I desire to dictate a message of love to you and to all of my faithful.

"Children, once again, I am calling you to prayer. I am inviting you to come close to my Jesus. This is what my Son desires, an intimate relationship with each and every one of you. Lean on Jesus and bring all of your worries and burdens to Him. Do you wish to obtain a particular favor for someone you love? Do you desire the grace necessary to live a holy life? Ask, dear children, everything is obtainable through my Son.

"Let your hearts be open, do not be afraid, do not hold back. Confide in my Son. Do you not realize that you are all under the mantle of my protection and that my watchful gaze surrounds you? Come close, little ones come close. Be confident and joyful as you travel on the road of holiness. It is not easy, only my Son can grant you all of the graces that you need. My Jesus is your salvation.

"Take time out to pray and to be quiet. Have sincere hearts, it is prayer from the heart that my Jesus desires most.

"Realize, dear children, the great grace that has been bestowed upon you. It is no coincidence that you are present here tonight. Each and every one of you have been called here to be renewed and to experience hope and peace so that you, in turn, will be my beacons of love and light to all you encounter. Be kind and patient with one another, forgive one another, and help one another. Ask for graces often and walk in my Son's truth.

"Dear children, I am bestowing my peace and grace upon each and every one of you this evening. Peace, children, peace."

Message from Our Lady of the Finger Lakes as given to Mary S. Reilly on Wednesday, February 18, 2004

"Mary, my precious daughter, I am the Holy Mother of God, your Mother, and I desire to dictate to you a message of love for all of my children.

"Children, rejoice because your prayers please my Jesus. My Son wishes to bestow significant grace upon all of you who have been called here this evening.

"Children, continue to fight the good fight, be strong in your faith, continue to walk in my Son's truth; be beacons of love and light to others. The love of my Son will always illuminate your path.

"As you prepare for the holy season of lent, sit and contemplate my Son's precious wounds, think of what you would like to do for Him. My Jesus gave His very life on the cross so that all of you would have eternal life. If only you knew my most profound sorrow as I followed my Son on the way of Calvary. Please children, I am pleading with you to stay true to my Jesus. It is your prayers and sacrifices that are a soothing balm to His most precious wounds.

“So I am continuing to ask you for prayer as you proceed on the road of holiness. Seek truth; seek peace. I am bestowing special blessings and graces upon each of you. Peace, my children, peace.”

Saint Joseph's Feast Day

Friday, 1:28 am

"Mary, it is I, your Jesus, and how I desire for you to write, my pearl.

“Harden not your hearts, my dear children - come and drink from the font of life. I am the living water. Come and quench your thirst. I am the source from which all mercy flows. My mercy has been dispensed generously, so generously in your generation. Now the time of My justice will prevail. A time of tribulation and chastisement will come over the world. I AM TELLING YOU THIS SO YOU WILL BE PREPARED. IT IS MY DESIRE FOR MY CHILDREN TO BE PREPARED. A dark hour approaches – thunder, mighty thunder, will roll in, a great rain will come over the earth. Lightning, huge bolts of lightning will strike. Take refuge in the heart of My holy and immaculate Mother, She is your protection. Recall your baptismal vows and recite the Creed. These are the essential Rites of My Church. My Sacraments are My great gifts to you. Utilize them and receive them worthily.

“Thunder will roll in over the mountains, through the valleys to the depths of the sea. The trumpets will sound, mighty trumpets. At My command, My angels stand ready to do My bidding. The hierarchy of angels stand ready, call on your Guardian Angels and do not underestimate the power entrusted to them as they stand guard over you. Oh, House of Jacob, House of Israel, as in days of old your foundations will crumble. Wake up, I say, wake up. The Son of Man stands and knocks at the door of your hearts. Pray and fast, give up your wicked ways, walk in the truth for the Son of Man beckons out to His people.

“Rejoice, rejoice, I say, for a glorious day is on the horizon, when all of My celestial court will sing songs of praise as My Mother's holy and immaculate heart will be triumphant and will reign over all men. How the heavens and earth will all rejoice and sing songs of praise. A new day will be born when all of My children will give honor and praise to My Mother. Rejoice, oh children of Israel, rejoice. You will give witness to a new day, to a new earth, a land where milk and honey will flow. Now march on victoriously and give witness to My love and mercy. Let your hearts be open to My grace and let My love shine forth from you. Take comfort children in My words to you for you have My promise of a new life, one of peace and harmony. All will love their Lord and their God with all of their hearts and souls and will give honor and praise to My Father. If only you knew how much you are loved by Me. I am your Jesus and I will bathe all of you in the light of My resurrection. Go forth in My peace and My grace.

“Mary, My pearl, receive My blessing and anointing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

April 11, 2004

Easter Sunday, 12:57 am

“Mary, My pearl, it is I, your Jesus, and how I desire for you to write. How your love for Me penetrates My holy and divine heart.

“March on, My soldier, march on. I have placed My seal of love and fidelity upon your heart. You belong to Me and I belong to you. As in days of old, march on. This crusade you have stepped out upon is not easy. You shall never lose foot; My holy angels will always illumine your path for you have much work to do for My greater glory; let none discourage you; woe to them who try to interfere. This is a crucial time in history – people are foolish. Oh, so many signs have been given to them and they pass things off as mere coincidence. There is no such thing as coincidence in My Kingdom. Winning souls is not easy or to be taken lightly. My most precious blood was shed to save all of mankind. Not all heed My call; their hearts are cold and callous, caught up in the ways of the world. It is these souls that have wounded My heart so grievously. My desire is that all of My children bask in the glory of My resurrection. On this Easter Sunday the rays of love and light of My resurrection penetrate and surround My faithful.

“Now, My children who wish to live in My love have been redeemed. Give all honor and glory to My Father; let My peace and love resound in the hearts of all men. Be at peace as you continue to bring souls to Me. Trust in the love and protection of My holy and glorious Mother. Be at peace and receive my Spirit, rest in My arms. I bless you and I anoint you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”
